

Hewitt Industries Conflict Minerals (3T&G) Policy:

While Hewitt Industries is a private company that is not required to comply with Section 4.15.2 of the Dodd–Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Hewitt Industries is sensitive to the concerns of its business partners.

- Hewitt Industries does not deal directly with smelters of 3T&G minerals.
- Hewitt Industries does not produce nor smelt minerals – but does purchase parts, materials and processes used to manufacture products from 3rd party vendors.
- Without specific intention, some products manufactured by Hewitt Industries may contain processed 3T&G minerals.
- Hewitt Industries has an internal policy for tracing the end product and all constituent parts back to the original purchase order acquiring the parts.
- Hewitt Industries has an active program requesting source information back through the supply chain for 3T&G minerals.
- Hewitt Industries will, on specific request, share such source information.

Please contact Hewitt Industries Sales or Purchasing for further information.

